

Heartland Christian School plans benefit

Heartland Christian School will hold its annual benefit dinner and auction on Saturday, April 21.

Published: Monday, April 9, 2007 2:00 AM CDT

Heartland Christian School will hold its annual benefit dinner and auction on Saturday, April 21.

Congressman Steve King is scheduled to be the keynote speaker, John Knicely of WOWT-6 will serve as master of ceremonies and Gail Hunter of Heartland Properties will be the honorary auctioneer for the evening.

The dinner and auction will be held at The Center, 714 S. Main St. The evening's festivities will begin at 5 p.m. with hors d'oeuvres and a silent auction. Dinner will follow at 6:30 p.m., and the oral auction starts at 8 p.m.

"This is a wonderful event to help raise money for Heartland Christian School," said event director Kim Wilson. "Our goal is not to raise funds for funds sake but to continue to have the resources needed to help our students have the strong academic skills needed to meet today's challenges and to build Christ-like character in each one."

Some of the items that will be available for auction: A week stay in Cabo San Lucas, Mexico, along with airfare; greens fees for four at Resort at LaCantera in San Antonio, Texas, (a PGA course); KC Royal tickets; a hand stitched quilt; a Nebraska City package including a stay at the Lied Lodge, golf at the Links Golf Course and breakfast for two; gift baskets; dessert for a year; College World Series tickets; Iowa Blackhawk tickets; framed artwork; and services from the HCS staff cleaning crew.