Core vets return to Blackhawks

By Ace Hendricks, Blackhawks staff writer

With less than one month before their first game of the season, the Iowa Blackhawks, Council Bluffs' indoor professional football team, have announced the return of seven seasoned veterans for the 2009 season which begins on Saturday, April 25th at the Mid-America Center.

Linebacker Chris Moore (5'10", 215), a perennial all-star; Quarterback Chuck Wright (6'2", 225), the teams all-time leading passer; Defensive back Scott Yates (5'11", 205), who has the most interceptions in team history, will join offensive lineman Tyrice Ellebb (6'3", 360), defensive end Ryan Hoden (6'2", 275), and versatile performers Mike Stuart (WR, 5'11", 190) and Burton Bosan (DB, 5'8", 180) as those who should be impact players for the Blackhawks, who look to be a team to beat in the American Professional Football League (APFL) this season.

Moore, Wright, Yates and Ellebb are all in the second year of.... Read the rest of the story here – www.iowablackhawks.com.
