The Iowa Blackhawks, Council Bluffs' indoor professional football team, have announced the cancellation of their 2006 season opener scheduled for Friday, April 14 in St. Joseph, Mo., versus the Storm.

Blackhawks owner and general manager, Jake Hiffernan, said the Storm organization had made some untimely decisions regarding the season, which led them to call off the game.

"It's very unfortunate this game had to be cancelled," continued Hiffernan. "Our coaches and players were really looking forward to getting the season going."

Iowa's first game of the season will now be on Saturday, April 22, in Sedalia, Mo., with a 7:05 pm kick-off. Missouri opened their season with a 6-3 loss to the Columbia Outlaws.

Iowa's first home game is scheduled for Saturday, April 29 with a 7:05 PM kick-off. Season tickets are still available.
