

Blackhawks sign former Barnstormer

The Iowa Blackhawks of the American Professional Football League has announced the signing of defensive back/wide receiver Dontrell Ducker to their roster

Published: Wednesday, April 13, 2005 2:00 AM CDT

The Iowa Blackhawks of the American Professional Football League has announced the signing of defensive back/wide receiver Dontrell Ducker to their roster.

Ducker is a University of South Dakota star. He played on the Iowa Barnstormer teams that included the National Football League's Kurt Warner.

While playing for South Dakota, Ducker was named first team All-North Central Conference, special teams player of the year and holds NCC single season record for kickoff return yards.

For more information regarding the Iowa Blackhawks, visit their Web site, www.iowablackhawks.com, or call (712) 366-9326.

Iowa's first home game is scheduled for May 6 at 7:05 p.m.