

SWIOWAN NEWS

Council Bluffs Daily Nonpareil • Clarinda Herald Journal • Logan Herald Observer
Denison Bulletin & Review • Shenandoah Valley News • Woodbine Twiner

Daily Nonpareil

Area Sportsline

Published: Sunday, May 1, 2005 2:00 AM CDT

A.L. hosts Blackhawks in benefit match

The Abraham Lincoln High School Faculty will play the Iowa Blackhawks arena football team in a dodgeball game on Tuesday at the A.L. gym at 7 p.m.

Admission to the game is $5. The game is being play to raise money to benefit children affected by the 2004 tsunami disaster.

For more information, call the high school at (712) 328-6481.

T. J. baseball

to host celebration

A celebration of Thomas Jefferson prep baseball, past and present, will be held May 28 at City Park. All former Yellow Jacket players and coaches are invited to attend along with T.J. fans.

For additional information, or tickets, please contact Ed Stemple at (402) 571-8169 or orknine777@hotmail.com, or Rich Bartholomew at (712) 328-8201 or rbart@jvbprint.com.

Cyclone Outing

coming May 19

The annual Cyclone Club Outing will be May 19 at the Lakeshore County Club.

Women's basketball coach Bill Fennelly, football assistant coach Mike Grant and assistant men's basketball coach Damon Archibald headline the program along with other Iowa State speakers.

Cocktail hour begins at 5:30 p.m. followed by dinner and the program. Tickets are $25. For reservations or information call (402) 443-4181 or email clonefan@alltel.net.

There will be a golf outing at Lakeshore starting at 11 a.m. The cost of the outing is $50. To register call (712) 328-1566.

Lake Manawa fishing contest starts in May

There is a May through September contest for fish caught at Lake Manawa. Catch a fish (crappie in May, bluegill in June, catfish in July, wiper in August or walleye in September) and get the live fish weight and recorded at Woods Sporting Good.

Fish will be judged by length first and then weight. The winners will be announced at Woods Sporting Goods at the beginning of the following month. There will be three divisions, eight years and under, 9-15 year olds and 16 year olds and up.

Black Squirrel Triathlon on June 11

The Council Bluffs "Black Squirrel Triathlon" is looking for sponsors for the June 11 event. Donations will be used to provide race packets, buy awards, provide security, and offer hospitality to participants. There will be an opportunity for appropriate organizations to have booths at the triathlon.

The triathlon is presented in partnership by Council Bluffs YMCA, Council Bluffs Parks and Recreation, and Iowa School for the Deaf/Lied Multipurpose Complex. The event will include a 500-yard swim, 16-mile bike, and 3.1-mile run.

Triathlon registration forms will be available at sponsor and presenting partner locations and on the Parks and Recreation's website, www.cbparksandrec.org. Registrations will be accepted through June 1.

For more information, contact the Council Bluffs YMCA at 322-6606.

I-Club's Spring Fling

set for May 3

University of Iowa football coach Kirk Ferentz and women's basketball coach Lisa Bluder will top the lineup at the annual Nile Kinnick I-Club Spring Fling.

This year's event will be Tuesday, May 3, at the Mid-America Center starting with a 6:30 p.m. reception.

For ticket information, call (402) 393-8776.

Reiver women's walk coming on May 7

Iowa Western Community College's annual Reiver women's walk is Saturday, May 7, at 9 a.m. on the Iowa Western campus. This is to support the Reiver student-athletes scholarship fund.

The walk is for individuals and teams with prizes for funds raised. For more information call (712) 325-3418.

Iowa Western offers four volleyball camps

New Iowa Western Community College volleyball coach Terry Gamble is offering four camps this summer.

The developmental skills camp (July 18-21) is for third through fifth graders who are being introduced to the game.

The general skills camp (July 18-21) is for sixth through eighth graders and covers a wider range of skilled players.

The elite skills camp (July 6-8) is designed for the high school player with sessions run in a college practice environment.

The team camps (Aug. 12-13) are for high school junior varsity and varsity squads. The focus is on competition and requires a coach to be with the team.

For more information, call (712) 256-6535.

Hershey Track and Field on May 7

Council Bluffs Parks, Recreation and Public Property will host the 28th annual Hershey Track and Field Meet at Wilson Junior High (C.B. Stadium) Saturday, May 7 at 8:30 a.m.

The meet is free for all participants and open to 9-14 year olds in Council Bluffs and Pottawattamie County, with divisions including 9-10, 11-12 and 13-14 year olds, based on the participant's age as of Dec. 31, 2005.

Events include the 50, 100, 200 and 400 meter dashes, 800 and 1,600 meter runs, 4x100, standing long jump and softball throw. Participants can compete in a maximum of one track and two field or one field and two track events.

For more information, contact Council Bluffs Parks, Recreation and Public Property at 328-4650 or www.cbparksandrec.org.

Copyright © 2009 - Southwest Iowa News