

Blackhawks move to Sunday

Due to a possible fifth game in the United States Hockey League's Clark Cup finals, the Iowa Blackhawks, Council Bluffs' indoor professional football team, has moved their scheduled game with the Missouri Minutemen on Saturday to Sunday with a 4:05 p.m. kickoff.

Published: Thursday, May 8, 2008 2:00 AM CDT

Due to a possible fifth game in the United States Hockey League's Clark Cup finals, the Iowa Blackhawks, Council Bluffs' indoor professional football team, has moved their scheduled game with the Missouri Minutemen on Saturday to Sunday with a 4:05 p.m. kickoff.

"We're excited that the Lancers are playing great hockey," said Blackhawks owner Jake Hiffernan, "But their success has created the possible need for a game-five final Saturday (against Waterloo). We made the move to Sunday in case they (Lancers) will be playing for the championship on Saturday night. It's a great opportunity for the MAC and the city of Council Bluffs."

The Blackhawks will be offering all moms a Buy one, Get one free ticket for Mother's Day on Sunday. Doors will open at 3:05 p.m.

The Blackhawks opened their 2008 season with a 57-13 win over the Springfield WolfPack last week.

Single game tickets begin at just $8 and are on sale now at the MAC box office or by logging on to www.ticketmaster.com.