

Area Sportsline

Published: Saturday, June 3, 2006 2:00 AM CDT

Iowa Western offers

volleyball camps

Iowa Western Community College is offering a variety of youth volleyball camps this summer.

Directed by Reiver coach Terry Gamble and his staff, the camps are designed for third grade through high school varsity. There are individual and team camps. Camp sessions start in early July.

For more information, call the Iowa Western volleyball office at (712) 256-6535.

Blackhawks offer four-pack discount

Iowa Blackhawks' final four home games tickets are now available as a Four-Pack.

Tickets for all four games are available at $8 below face value when purchased as a package. The discount applies for all levels of reserved seating.

Iowa's remaining home schedule includes Missouri Minutemen (June 10), Omaha Extreme (June 24), Kansas Koyotes (July 8) and St. Joseph Storm (July 15).

For tickets, call the Blackhawks office at (712) 366-9326.

Turek basketball

camp in June

Former Abraham Lincoln basketball star John Turek will hold his boys basketball camp June 26-29 at Abraham Lincoln High School.

The camp is for fifth through 12th graders. Turek's instructors will include players with international experience and teammates from Turek's days at the University of Nebraska.

For more information, email JKT6ft9@hotmail.com.

Dew football camp

starts in June

The annual Craig Dew full contact football camp for youth eight to 12-year olds is scheduled for June 12-July 7. There is also available the kindergarten-eighth grade cheerleading camp.

For more information call (402) 672-1683.

