

Koyotes host play-in game

BY THE CAPITAL-JOURNAL

June 28, 2010 - 11:19pm

The Kansas Koyotes will host their final home game of the season at 7:35 p.m. Friday, when the Junction City Force visits Landon Arena during the play-in round of the American Professional Football League playoffs.

The Koyotes (4-5) are the No. 4 seed in the APFL and face the No. 5 seed Force for the right to play the Iowa Blackhawks, the top seed and the APFL's defending champion, on July 10 in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

The Koyotes finished the regular season Saturday with a 52-36 road loss to the Blackhawks (8-1).

The Junction City Force (0-4) visited Landon Arena on June 19, falling 62-26 to the Koyotes.

Tickets for adults for the playoff game will be half price, and buy one, get one free vouchers will be honored for tickets purchased through 6 p.m. Thursday. Tickets are available at the Kansas Expocentre ticket office.