

Blackhawks still active for 2009 season

In the wake of the Arena Football League's announcement that it would be canceling its 2009 football season, the Iowa Blackhawks, Council Bluffs' indoor professional football team, wanted to ensure its fans the Blackhawks would be playing a full season in 2009 and beyond.

Published: Tuesday, December 30, 2008 2:00 AM CST

In the wake of the Arena Football League's announcement that it would be canceling its 2009 football season, the Iowa Blackhawks, Council Bluffs' indoor professional football team, wanted to ensure its fans the Blackhawks would be playing a full season in 2009 and beyond.

"We're here to stay," said Blackhawks owner Jake Hiffernan. "The AFL's cancellation has no bearing on our upcoming season or our future here in Council Bluffs. If anything, it's going to make us stronger."

The Blackhawks, Council Bluffs' lone professional sports team, will begin its sixth season of football at the Mid-America Center in late April or early May.

Fans are welcome to contact the Blackhawks by calling their office at (712) 366.9326 or by e-mail at info@iowablackhawks.com with any questions or concerns.